Bitter Protest Filed With U. N. By North Korea

American Action
Termed Aggression
By Puppet Nation

LAKE SUCCESS, July 3—(AP)—Communist North Korea charged the United States today with "bare-faced aggression" and protested violently to the United Nations against "American armed intervention in Korea."

The protest, one of the most bitter documents against the U. S. yet received in the U. N., was written in Russian and was signed by Pak Hen Nen, North Korean foreign minister.

The note did not mention the Soviet union, which the West has charged with instigating the war.

North Korea is not a member of the U. N. but the U. N. sent the protest to the 11 members of the Security Council (Russia included) because the North Koreans are a party to the conflict.

Relayed Through Moscow

The U. N. sent copies of the Security Council cease fire order to Pyongyang, North Korea, via Moscow. The note received today came from Pyongyang via Moscow and Tangiers to New York.

The North accused the United States of brutally bombing its peaceful population and of trying to cover its intervention in Korea with the name of the United Nations.

The North Koreans also claimed military successes in the first week of the war.

They said in the long document that their army had cleared the "enemy" (South Koreans) from a large area of the southern half of Korea and "liberated" Seoul, the national capital.

Seoul was the capital of the republic of Korea which had jurisdiction only over that part of Korea south of the 38th Parallel. North Korea had claimed Pyongyang as its capital, and this is the first comment noted here that the northern forces may be planning to set up Seoul as the capital of all Communist Korea.

40 Nations Back Action

The number of U. N. members endorsing a Security Council call for action against North Korean aggression rose to 40 today with messages from Ethiopia and Sweden. Ethiopia was the victim of aggression by Mussolini's Italy in one of the incidents leading to the second world war.

The 40 members gave the council the support of two-thirds of the 59 U. N. members, a margin big enough to pass any proposal through the general assembly.

Those backing the council are the 21 American republics, including the United States, Britain, Nationalist China, India, Belgium, the Netherlands, Sweden, New Zealand, Australia, the Philippines, Turkey, Pakistan, Canada, Luxembourg, South Africa, Greece, Thailand, Denmark, Israel and Ethiopia.

France and Norway, Security Council members, voted for the action but their governments have not yet indicated what they will do to carry it out. Italy, a non-member because of Russian vetoes, also endorsed it.

On the other side of the fence were the Soviet union, Poland and Czechoslovakia, with sharp protest notes. Yugoslavia voted against the resolution but has not acted further.

More Superforts On Way To Korea

WASHINGTON, July 3—(AP)—The Air Force today ordered additional B-29 Superfortresses to the Far East.

The exact number was not disclosed.

Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, Air Force chief of staff, said the planes will be flown from March air force base, Riverside, Calif., and Spokane air force base, Spokane, to advanced American bases in the Pacific.

The announcement said the B-29's "will be the first additional air force units assigned to that theater (the Far East) since the invasion of South Korea."

SELLS FIREWORKS, FINED LISBON, July 3—Harry McArthur of West township was fined $25 and costs by Justice Felix Butch when he entered a plea of guilty to the charge of selling fireworks. He was arrested by Sheriff Howard Clark and Dean Leatherberry of Augusta, assistant state fire marshal.

Holiday Programs Set For Stay-At-Homes

Although early weekend traffic seemed to belie it, a few folks are staying at home over the Fourth of July. In Salem, they'll find nice weather for the holiday. The weather Tuesday will be mostly sunny and warm, according to the weatherman.

Without taking to the highways and endangering life and limb, Salemites will be able to find plenty of entertainment within a 10 to 20 mile radius of their homes.

At the district's various lakes there'll be plenty to do and the Fourth celebrants will flock to them. Within a stone's throw of Salem are Westville, Placencia, Sevakene, Diehl, Pine, Guilford lakes, Firestone pool and the Salem Country Club. Swimming, boating, fishing will provide entertainment for all ages.

Special programs have been arranged at the Country Club and at Sevakene.

There will be a lot of golf played today at the Salem Club, Sleepy Hollow, Mill Creek, and Valley courses by Salem players. Baseball can be watched here in the city or at Lake Placencia.

Duffy Asks Quota On Pottery Imports

CLEVELAND, July 3—(UP)—The AFL Brotherhood of Operative Potters union president, James Duffy, said today the union opposed further reductions in the tariff on imported pottery and favors a quota system.

Duffy, addressing 175 delegates at the opening session of the 10-day union convention said the union realizes the United States must allow some pottery imports in order to export.

This is necessary in order to place more dollars into the hands of the dollar-short countries," he said.

"However," he said, "foreign products are made by workers who are paid less, work longer hours and operate under less favorable working conditions than American workers."

Duffy said the union favored a quota being placed on the amount of pottery imported instead of the reduction in tariff, because a quota would still allow importation without affecting the job ratio.

"Any further reduction in tariffs would mean less jobs for our members," he added. "Quotas would permit a fair share of the market to go to imports and contain the destructive effects of low-wage competition on our employment."

U. S. Marines, Air Units To Strengthen Forces Under Gen. MacArthur

Believe Enemy Forces Prepare New Assault

Continued American
Air Attacks Slow Down Offensive

TOKYO, Tuesday, July 4—(AP)—The Communist invaders of South Korea were within six miles of the town of Suwon today, but front and headquarters accounts indicated they had virtually halted while gathering strength for a new all-out assault.

Far-sweeping American and Australian air attacks contributed to the enemy slowdown and forced the North Koreans to rush up heavier anti-aircraft defenses for Red-conquered Seoul.

American troops, digging in at an unidentified forward position, had not yet met the North Korean ground forces.

The Americans got a foretaste of front-line conditions Monday, however, when five to seven friendly Australian Mustangs savagely strafed and rocket-blasted nearby positions.

So near was the raid that one American sergeant was slightly wounded in the foot and others had to dive for cover.

Circumstances of this incident were not clear. An air force spokesman in Tokyo headquarters said reports of Monday's air strikes were not all in and he could not give any explanation until later.

AP Correspondent Tom Lambert, who was on the spot and telephoned the news to Tokyo, described it as a 25-minute attack on the mud village where the Americans had established a command post.

General MacArthur's communique of Tuesday morning did not mention the incident. It said American and Australian fighters in a series of sorties Monday destroyed seven enemy tanks and damaged five, destroyed 22 trucks and damaged 29, shot down one LA-7 and one Yak-9 fighter, blew up an ammunition dump and destroyed one locomotive and damaged three.

Ten B-29 heavy bombers for the second consecutive day attacked Yonpo airfield, 135 miles inside North Korea near the east coast.

The invader Yak fighters strafed and bombed South Korean defense troops near Kimpo airfield 16 miles west of Seoul, and the Suwon airstrip 23 miles south of Seoul.

MacArthur's account of ground operations tended strongly to support the word of American officers in Korea that the invader drive had slowed to a shuffle after racing ahead for eight days.

When the session broke up, Senator Lucas of Illinois, the Democratic floor leader, was the only one reporters got a chance to approach. He would not comment. Police kept reporters at a distance so it was impossible to approach the others.

They included Secretary of State Acheson, Ambassador at Large Philip Jessup, Secretaries Johnson of Defense, Brannan of Agriculture, Snyder of the Treasury, and Postmaster General Donaldson.

Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, also was there, as were Secretaries of the Army Pace, of the Navy Matthews, and of the Air Force Finlitter.

Jamboree Scouts Will Hear 'Ike'

Fireworks Display To Follow General's Talk

VALLEY FORGE, Pa., July 3—(AP)—"Let 'er rip"—Three little words which made history in World War II — provided the chief campfire conversation piece today at the Boy Scouts' second national jamboree.

General Dwight D. Eisenhower spoke those words in starting the channel invasion of Nazi-held Europe June 6, 1944.

The former Allied supreme commander will repeat that order Tuesday night to touch off a fireworks display expected to bring "ohs" and "ahs" to the lips of the 47,000 campers gathered at the jamboree arena.

Eisenhower, now serving as president of Columbia University, will come to Valley Forge from New York. His mode of travel has not yet been disclosed. It is still possible he may drop in on the tent city by helicopter to avoid the traffic jam.

At the "let 'er rip" cue—concluding Eisenhower's address—a crew of specialists will touch off scores of aerial bombs, rockets, silk pinwheels and 16 display pieces.

Among these will be a blazing likeness of the Statue of Liberty and one of the Boy Scout badge. Another attraction features a big silk American flag which will be shot skyward, unfurl and float to earth by means of a parachute as aerial flares illuminate the scene.

Earlier, 8,000 scouts will participate in a pageant—"scouting across the nation." This show will include costumed characters portraying everything from Indians to pioneers riding in covered wagons.

The seven-day encampment closes Thursday.

City Will Continue
Holiday Traffic Policy

The city will continue its holiday policy of prohibiting parking on downtown State st. Tuesday.

Capt. James Hassey, acting chief of police, said parking will be banned on both sides of State st. from Lincoln ave. westward to city limits.

The parking ban is a movement to eliminate holiday congestion and speed the flow of traffic through the city.

Warm Weather For Holiday Is Forecast

WASHINGTON, July 3—(AP)—Looks like a nice Fourth of July, coming up for most of the nation, though there may be some scattered thundershowers, the weather bureau said.

But the showers, if they come, should be both brief and spotty, the bureau forecast in a nationwide holiday weather outlook.

"Seasonably warm" temperatures are anticipated from the Rockies eastward, except for rather cool weather in the Upper Mississippi Valley and Upper Great Lakes regions. The plateau region and inland portions of the Pacific states can look for "quite warm" weather, the bureau said.

26 Indicted In Pettibone Case

Grand Jury Praises
Rutkowski Evidence

CHARDON, July 3—(AP)—The Geauga county grand jury today returned 26 secret indictments after a study of gambling evidence gathered by the state at the Pettibone club.

Judge William K. Thomas, to whom the indictments were returned, handed them to Donald Phillips, county clerk. It will be up to Sheriff Stewart M. Harland to serve warrants and make arrests.

The persons named in the indictments and what they are charged with will not be known until the arrests are made, the judge explained.

The jury was praised both by Anthony A. Rutkowski, state liquisor enforcement chief, and by Judge Thomas, a recent appointee of Governor Frank J. Lausche.

Rutkowski said credit for gathering the evidence on which the jury acted should go mainly to two undercover men "whose devotion to duty was exceeded only by their honesty."

The state "won't relax its attack against the Pettibone club until the place is cleaned out and gamblers driven from Geauga county," added Rutkowski, who is Governor Lausche's top lieutenant in the drive against the club.

Air Force Also To Strengthen Far East Bases

Marines Will Leave
California Within
Several Days

WASHINGTON, July 3—(AP)—American Marines today were ordered to Japan in response to a request by General Douglas MacArthur for reinforcements in the Korean war crisis.

The Navy said the famed "Devil Dogs" and Marine air units will move from bases in California.

Simultaneously, the Air Force ordered B-29 Superfortresses bombers flown from Pacific coast bases to advanced U. S. bases in the Far East—described as the first aerial reinforcements since the invasion of South Korea.

To Start In Few Days
Air force quarters indicated that the full strength of the 9th Bomb Wing at Spokane, Wash., and of the 22nd Bomb Wing at March Field, Calif., will join the Far East command.

The Spokane wing has 30 B-29s, and March field has 46. A navy spokesman said the Marines were being dispatched in reply to MacArthur's call for additional combat manpower. It is expected they will start moving across the Pacific in a few days.

In another development, Ambassador Wellington Koo reported to the State Department that probably 200,000 Communist troops—Chinese and Korean—are in North Korea, the springboard for the invasion of South Korea.

He said the Chinese Communists have a "large group" massed on the North Korean border, ready to enter the battle if needed.

Koo also reported that between 400,000 and 500,000 Chinese Communists are drawn up along the coast of Red China, ready to launch the long-threatened invasion of Formosa.

Probably Will See Action
President Truman last week ordered the U. S. 7th fleet to protect Formosa against Communist invasion. The island, 100 miles off the China coast is the last stronghold of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's Chinese Nationalist regime.

In announcing the dispatch of U. S. Marines to the Far East, the Defense Department did not say whether they would be thrown immediately into the South Korean war to bolster American infantry already moving into action there.

The Navy said Marine troops and air units from the fleet marine base at Camp Pendleton, and El Toro, both in California, were ordered to report to Gen. MacArthur in Japan.

About 22,000 leathernecks are stationed at Camp Pendleton, including three combat battalions. The announcement came as government leaders were reported considering the best ways of providing more trained manpower if problem is said to have been laid before President Truman for study.

Some military officials were said to favor calling up certain reserve units made up largely of officers from World War II.

However, Secretary of Defense Johnson told newsmen after a conference with Mr. Truman that the administration has no present intention to mobilize reserves.

Asked about the prospect for a partial mobilization, Johnson replied: "Not at the present time."

Liquor Vendors Get New Rules

Ads Cannot Portray Santa Claus Or GIs

COLUMBUS, July 3—(AP)—Wednesday, in the heat of mid-summer, the Ohio Department of Liquor Control turns its thoughts to the protection of Santa Claus and our fighting men.

Tucked away in just slightly less than a sleigh-full of new regulations effective July 5 is this little paragraph:

"No advertising shall refer to portray any military subject or any picture or reference to Santa Claus."

Much more to the point, from a seasonal standpoint and the cut of modern bathing suits, is this firm rule by which all liquor advertisers must abide:

"Advertising which included the likeness or caricature of a woman shall be prohibited if such likeness or caricature exploits the human form in an immodest, vulgar or sensuous manner."

And that goes for television, too. The next section of the rules says pointedly:

"Television broadcasting or screening shall be prohibited if the advertising portrays pictures of women in an immodest or vulgar manner."

The protective cloak of the department also is thrown around Santa's little pals—the youngsters—in the new regulations, they permit advertising of spirits via radio or television, but not before 10 p. m.

And, don't sit up waiting for a giveaway program sponsored by a liquor advertiser, because there won't be any. The new regulations prohibit any alcoholic beverage advertising program by radio, television, newspaper, mail or otherwise offering a prize upon completion of any contest of whatever nature.

They also establish a maximum size for illuminated signs advertising individual brands of alcoholic beverages. The size is 324 square inches, which figures out to somewhat less than 14 by 24 inches.

Steel Supply Affected

CLEVELAND, July 3—(AP)—Civilian steel consumption may be cramped further as a result of U. S. intervention in Korea's civil war, Steel Magazine said today.

"At present," Steel said, "Our military operations in Korea require only 'eye-dropper' proportions of the material we have on hand. But in the event of a war between the United States and Russia the effects on metalworking and steel industries will be sweeping, perhaps quick."

VALLEY FORGE, Pa., July 3—(AP)—Boy Scouts from Punksu-tawney took no chances on having the weather bureau go wrong in its forecast for the national jamboree.

They brought along their own prognosticator—A groundhog that answers to the name of George.

They claim George predicted the shower of June 29, the day before the jamboree opened. Since then, they say, George has forecast plenty of hot sunshine.

Books to Him Spell Way to Success

Salem's New Librarian Has High Respect For Research

The public library has many patrons but the new librarian, John Rebenack, wants more. He welcomes with open arms the very young readers. He's proud of his teen agers and the more mature. But he's ready at the drop of a flyleaf to persuade adults, especially men of business, professions and industry, that the library has a useful, profitable and satisfying purpose for them.

"There's a world of opportunity in these books of ours," says Mr. Rebenack. "Not only are they sources of entertainment but many of them contain valuable information on subjects necessary for business development and progress."

When Mr. Rebenack gets that far he is on a theme close to his heart. He believes the library's reference service should be expanded to a considerable degree, with literature of every kind available to men and women interested in business.

In The Spirit Of Independence

EVERY AMERICAN, it can be assumed safely, has read the Declaration of Independence at least once. But not many have found the time to re-read it at frequent intervals. It is a rewarding experience.

The signers of the declaration risked everything they had... their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor. All odds were against them. And the heaviest of the odds came from something in their own minds. They were reluctant to strike out on a new experiment. They expressed their reluctance in these words:

"Prudence... will dictate that governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all human experience hath shown that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed."

Without the extreme provocations subsequently listed in the Declaration of Independence, the Continental Congress could never have resolved its will to break away from Britain. It frequently is forgotten that their declaration, though taking a collective form, was wholly personal. The colonies could not be punished if the revolution failed, but the revolutionists could lose their lives. The spirit of independence was a hot flame in the hearts of men who would risk life itself for the privilege of independence. And those who today wonder whether men like those ever will be seen again. A timely reminder: Americans are risking their lives and some already have lost their lives in a fight for the independence of a fledgling government on the Asiatic peninsula of Korea.

'Great Possibilities'

MATTHEW WOLL, vice president of A.F.L., says he sees "great possibilities" in the arrangement which has kept the New York World-Telegram and Sun from publishing since June 13.

So do we—but not from the same point of view.

Mr. Woll is impressed by an important newspaper property being manhandled because there is an unofficial understanding among the bosses of its union to respect one another's picket lines. He explains that if this were an official understanding it would be in violation of the Taft-Hartley Act, being in the nature of a conspiracy. "The World-Telegram employs have shown us what can be accomplished if we want to use our power in the printing trades," boasts Mr. Woll.

The same employees have shown their employers, the readers and advertisers of the newspaper, the people of New York City and all other interested persons, perhaps including a few thoughtful Congressmen, that it now is possible to wipe out freedom of the press on short notice in the United States—if certain persons want to use their power in the printing trades. A single union boss could pull the trick by getting a few other union bosses to play along with him. The whole thing would have to be done unofficially, of course, because otherwise it would be contrary to the Taft-Hartley Act. But it is being unofficially done right now in New York City, in what could be the rehearsal for an act of sabotage that would shake America to its foundations.

It isn't that Mr. Woll himself is thinking of it as a rehearsal, not that. But Mr. Woll and a few others have gone to extraordinary lengths to set a precedent for those who never quit thinking about sabotage. "Great possibilities" is putting it mildly. Newspaper people pray that this is one chicken that may never come home to roost on the outstretched necks of union bosses who intend to have their way at any price, up to and including the price of their own constitutional rights.

Bookkeeping Transaction

A MURAL in the U. S. Capitol showing American Indians scalping a white man has set off fireworks. The Association for Indian Affairs demands that the record be set straight and sheds some new light. This is the gist of the light:

American Indians were corrupted into the practice of scalping by their white "brothers." The brothers places a bounty on death in their wars of conquest and demanded proof that death had occurred. Hence, the scalps of victims. It was merely an adaptation of cutting off hands, ears and noses, which had been practiced by warriors in other lands at other times. The purpose was the same—to assist with the records. The scalps were vouchers entitling the bearer to payment for services rendered. Civilization had reached a new continent. It brought many other ideas—firearms, firewater and steel knives to gladden the wilderness with shrieks of pain and howls of joy.

Lo the poor Indian did the best he could with these additions to the troubles he already had, but he didn't do very well. Alas the poor white man has moments of doubt when he suspects he isn't doing very well either.

Nation's Enemies Also Formidable

WASHINGTON, July 3—(AP)—America's ability to wage war is the greatest in peacetime history.

Top military leaders agree this is so, but they caution that our potential enemies are formidable too.

They add that in any war today surprise tactics and speedy all-out mobilization could defeat greater military might.

The United States could reach, from Western Hemisphere bases, any "significant" bombing target on earth, some military officials say, but Russia has the equipment to long-range bomb us also.

One top Pentagon official says it's time the same old army story, but with a new twist: "Getting there fastest with the most—atom bombs."

TO FORESTALL the possibility of a sneak attack, a radar network is operating in the North-west, Northeast and Alaska. But the network is far from complete. The buildings and land alone needed for additional installations will cost an estimated $80,000,000.

A staff of about 170,000 civilian volunteers is being recruited to help watch for enemy planes and to broadcast warnings in case of attack.

Defense Secretary Johnson has said:

"The state of readiness of our armed forces and the military potential to our country are greater today than in any previous peacetime period in the nation's history."

Manpower totals 1,458,400 people, compared with 2,235,000 at the time of Pearl Harbor. We have 776,600 fewer military personnel now than at the time of the Japanese attack, but Gen. J. Lawton Collins, Army chief of staff, has said:

"We stand today stonger in the effectiveness of our men in uniform than at any time since the end of World War II."

DR. VANNEVAR BUSH, head of U.S. Scientific Research and Development in World War II, told reporters we are well ahead of Russia in atomic warfare developments.

There is no argument over the assertion that our navy is the greatest in the world.

But coupled with this fact is another: Russia has a fleet of at least 270 submarines much more formidable than those used by Germany in World War II.

However, military men point out we have developed new anti-submarine devices, too.

We have a powerful air force with bases around the world, some flanking Russia and her satellites.

The latest compilation of "acknowledged" bases—there are other, secret ones—made for the Associated Press shows we have 17 navy bases scattered around the world and more than 40 air bases.

Officials also have disclosed that our pile of critical and strategic war materials is less than half complete.

BIBLE QUOTATION

For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.—Ephesians 6:12.

Flatter not thyself in thy faith to God if thou wantest charity for thy neighbor; and think not thou hast charity for thy neighbor if thou wantest faith to God. Where they are not both together, they are both dead if once divided.

—Quarles.

The Unveiled Truth

By TRUMAN TWILL

THE subject for discussion today is delicate. It is going to make some readers huffy. The subject is veils.

A veil is a piece of fabric hung up to hide the view, according to Webster's, which comes right to the point. Women are wearing veils because they want to hide the view. Something sneaky is afoot.

Everything about veils—every connotation of the word—is furtive, sly and questionable. Such as "veiled meanings," "veiled questions" and "veiled maneuvers." Only in religion does a veil have a wholesome background—and there's nothing religious about the peek-a-boos that women are cooing over on dress-up hats this season.

The intent is plainly to deceive, but the question is who is supposed to be deceived. Certainly not husbands, who know darned well the face behind the veil is the same one they saw at the breakfast table—no better or no worse.

It couldn't be the general public, because the G.P. learned long ago that women who wear veils are sad about something, usually about the way they look. The general public respects a lady's privacy in this situation and doesn't look twice.

It couldn't be unattached males who are the theoretical persons to be fooled by women wearing veils. Any unattached male worth attaching knows enough to stay away from any woman wearing a veil because it is likely to get caught in his teeth while he is mouthing a few sweet nothings into a shell-like ear, if he gets that close.

That leaves only one possibility, which is that the veil-wearers must be trying to deceive one another. The idea is the same as a masquerade ball where everybody wears a mask to provide a common basis of competition for attention.

But if that is the idea, it isn't working. The hardest thing on earth for one woman to do to another woman is to deceive her. "You can take off the disguise now, dearie. The talent scout for Ringling Brothers sidshow has gone away." That's the way women react to ruses to deceive each other.

The only reason for agitating the subject is that veils are a hazard not only to careless males who get tangled up in them from the outside but to their wearers, who get fouled up from the inside. Veils keep practice. A wearer has to keep her mind on her work and not pop a gumdrop into her mouth without raising the shade.

The things haven't been ironed, moreover, which means that any lady addicted to the use of tobacco in combustible form must remember to get the cheese-cloth out of the way, or poof! The use of tobacco in non-combustible form also is tricky, though it must be acknowledged that not many addicts of that curious vice are veil-wearers.

It's the lady who is forever popping something into her mouth who worries watchers most. A lot of veils are getting chewed to pieces. Look at the holes in them! Whatever the things are made of probably isn't good for a person.

A beaver can fell a five-inch tree in three minutes.

Let's Keep It Independent

Our Need For Early Mobilization

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON IMMEDIATE mobilization of American armed forces on a limited but gradually growing scale is the only certain answer that has been devised here to meet effectively the contingency that Soviet Russia may already be in the process of starting a third world war.

President Truman courageously showed the world in general and Russia in particular last week that he would not wait for Congress before ordering our armed forces to repel attack against American interests anywhere.

But this is only part of the answer that must be developed to the big question which our highest officers have been debating now for several days: Is the Soviet government operating already on a timetable which calls for involvement of America in local crises in widely separated areas of the world in order to pave the way for minimum resistance to a Communist march across Europe in September or the autumn months?

No amount of crystal-ball gazing or guessing or conference conversation will assure the security of the United States. Only a mobilization now will be "playing it safe" against an aggressor who moves in devious ways stimulating local wars and causing tension in Berlin, Iran, Turkey, Greece without fear of an atom-bomb attack because of a well-planned program.

IT IS REASONED that the Soviets would avoid giving America provocation to drop atomic bombs at the outset, knowing full well that once Italy and France are infiltrated, and the march is started across Europe, the danger of hurting allied peoples will be so great as to cause America to hesitate to be the first to use atom bombs on civilian populations—especially in the face of threats by Russia to drop them on London and Paris and Rome.

The foregoing can be said to summarize the thoughts expressed by competent men in military circles here as the whole situation takes on a gravity scarcely realized by people outside Washington.

For the truth is that the United States cannot wait till Russia strikes first and then authorize the president to order a mobilization which would consume at least 90 days of valuable time. This might be very costly in lives.

Much less expensive in the long run would be a limited mobilization at once which could make Europe secure against attack. Demobilization would presumably not be ordered again until after the Red Army had demobilized and an assurance of peace had come to Europe.

The first step in a limited mobilization may come this week. It would be a call for "volunteer reserves" to active duty at once. This is imperative if the Navy, for example, is to get the personnel to man the ships needed this very month.

GENERAL MACARTHUR is an able commander and has plenty of authority, but he has limited forces at hand in the Far East. He has no trained amphibious forces. The U. S. Marines are at San Diego, all packed up ready to sail, and will be invaluable as reinforcements for MacArthur's troops especially if the Chinese Communists start sending their hordes into North Korea.

More aircraft carriers must be put into commission at once so as to begin ferrying fighter planes and tactical airplanes across the Pacific to reinforce or replace the planes of the U. S. Air Force which already have been lost or damaged. The B-29's are fine for high-level strategic bombing, but they do not do low-level bombing against tanks and moving troops.

Ships must be gotten out of "mothballs" immediately, though no such orders had been given up to today at least. It takes weeks—not days—to transport men and supplies across the Pacific. Already questions are being asked as to why, when it costs only $5,000,000 a year to operate and maintain a middle-sized carrier of the Essex type, there are only three in commission out of the 26 available. These three supplement the three of the Coral Sea type now in commission, each of which costs not much more to operate.

LIKEWISE, although we have about 65 small-sized carriers and it takes less than $2,000,000 a year to operate and maintain each of them, including pay for personnel, there are hardly any in service. Surely, it will be said, out of the $15,000,000,000 spent annually for armament, these small sums could have been allocated this year. But where would the personnel come from to man them?

It would have cost only $8,000,000 to maintain installations at Guam to house a Marine Corps force, but "economy" eliminated that item, too, a few months ago—and now it will cost many times that sum to transport forces to meet a prolonged siege in Korea which might not have been necessary if the Marines had been in a handy spot.

The time for decisiveness on the military side is at hand. The President cannot afford to hesitate. Last week saw procrastination at the top level on these simple matters of preparation. American public opinion will turn swiftly against an administration that allows indecisiveness to become chronic. The situation here is beginning every day to look more and more like it did in the days immediately following the surprise attack on Pearl Harbor. It's the same kind of a mess.

Confused Eagle

By HAL BUTLER

Eager Beaver Sets Him Right

VALLEY FORGE, Pa. THE FAT MAN toiled wearily up a hill in the enjoyment of 47,000 Boy Scouts here for their annual national jamboree.

Despite the hot sun the man—being conversant, as most fat people are—was swayed with sentimental memories of his own days as a Scout.

He passed a tent just as a fat young boy in shorts came out. The fat man paused to rest, mopping his forehead, perspiring now and then loudly.

"Keweenaw!" The fat boy started doubtfully at him and asked: "What did you say, sir?" "Keweenaw! Keweenaw!" said the fat man, hopefully. "I used to belong to the Eagle patrol. That is the cry of the Eagle patrol—Keweenaw! Don't you recognize it?" "No, sir, I don't."

"Well, I can't blame you for that," said the fat man. "I always thought it sounded funny for Eagles to go around saying, 'Keweenaw.' But that's what the Scout handbook said they did—when I was a boy. What is your patrol?"

THE FAT BOY promptly slipped his hands loudly.

"Never mind the appliances," said the fat man applied.

"But that is the sign of my patrol—the Beaver patrol sir," said the young Scout. "You clap your hands together. It is supposed to be like the sound of a beaver slapping his tail on the water as a signal of alarm to the other beavers."

The fat man asked him why he had joined the Beaver patrol. The fat boy slipped a moment, then said:

"Because I thought it was the easiest cry to make of any of the patrols listed in our handbook, sir."

"Hmm," said the fat man. "What are some of them?"

"Well, if you join the Otter patrol our handbook says the cry is—'Koi-oi-oi.' I just couldn't say 'Koi-oi-oi' and feel like

I was a real otter. And the cry for the Porcupine patrol is just to make your teeth chatter.

That's hard, too. And if you join the Gull patrol you go 'Kow-haw, 'Kow-haw!'"

THE FAT MAN wanted to know about the other patrols. So the fat boy ran into his tent and came back with the Scout handbook opened at the page giving the patrol names and their calls. The fat man glanced and saw a few:

Raven—"Kaw-kaw."

Parrot—"Kook-kook."

Moose—"Oh-ah, oh-ah, oh-ah-ah."

Flaming Arrow—"Whoooo."

Heron—"Quack, quack."

Owl—"Loud ooo."

Alligator—Grunting him.

Battlehawk—Battle noises in ooo.

Pine Tree—Battle paper.

Beaver—Clap hands once.

"You see, sir," explained the fat boy announcement, "the Beaver patrol is really the one to join."

"What do you plan to be when you grow up, son?"

"A lawyer."

"Well, I don't know what kind of a Scout you are," said the fat man, as he started to waddle on up the hill, "but I predict right now you'll be a darn good lawyer. Goodbye, my boy—and Keweenaw!"

The fat boy clapped his hands sharply once.

The Eagle and the Beaver understood each other.

Miss Gertrude Girscht Wed To Elmer Hardy In Church

CHARMING SIMPLICITY CHARACTERIZED the wedding of Miss Gertrude Girscht, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Girscht of Liberty st., and Elmer Hardy, son of Elmer Hardy of Wellsville, at 3:30 Saturday in the Emmanuel Lutheran Church.

Two white vases of gladioli and carnations were on the altar that was banked with greenery.

Miss Mary Ann Linder sang "Because" and "With This Ring I Thee Wed" before the ceremony. She was accompanied by Mrs. W. J. Seeman, organist, who also played "At Dawning," "O Perfect Love," "In The Garden of Tomorrow" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Rev. John Bauman, pastor, solemnized the double-ring service as the custom of open church was observed.

Attending Miss Girscht and Mr. Hardy were Mrs. Lena Onstott, matron of honor, and Mrs. Rudy Schuster, sister of the bride, bridesmaid, Joseph Anderson as best man, and Rudy Schuster as usher.

The bride's father escorted her to the altar. Her white organdie embroidery trim ballerina length dress was in redingote style. Her shoulder-length veil was attached to a cap which was ornate with strands of orange blossoms across the back. Her rhinestone necklace was the groom's gift and she carried a bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and maiden hair fern showered with stephanotis and fern.

Mrs. Onstott and Mrs. Schuster were dressed alike in aqua fashioned like the bride's dress, with the exception that their redingotes had shawl collars. They wore rhinestone bracelets, the bride's gifts, and their matching maline sweetheart hats were trimmed with bunches of forget-me-nots. They both carried bouquets of pink roses and pink sweet peas tied with matching ribbon.

Mrs. Girscht wore a navy and white sheer with harmonizing accessories and Mrs. Hardy's outfit was in aqua. Both wore corsages of pink roses and stephanotis.

A dinner and reception for 70 relatives and friends was held at the Saxon hall. A red and white theme prevailed in the table appointments. Guests came from Cleveland, Columbus, Wellsville and nearby towns.

When the bride left on her honeymoon trip, she was wearing an aqua suit, white accessories and a corsage.

A graduate of Salem High school, the bride is employed by the Church Budget Co. Her husband graduated from Goshen Union High School and is employed by the Deming Co.

ICED FRUIT SOUPS are easily prepared, and ideal for hot weather

Fruit Soups Are Hot Day Treat

THE beautiful rose-colored fruit soups so well known to our Michigan Dutch housewives and our cooks of Scandinavian ancestry are ideal for "dog days." You can use red currants, or berries (red or black raspberries, huckleberries and blackberries), apples and oranges or even plums. Season subtly with cinnamon, cloves and allspice. Garnish with slices of fresh fruit and serve cold.

Chilled Orange Soup

(Serves 4)

One and one-half cups orange juice (seeds removed but not strained), 1/3 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons lemon or lime juice, 10 whole cloves, pinch of salt, 2 tablespoons maraschino cherry juice, 1 1/2 teaspoons quick-cooking tapioca.

Simmer juices, sugar, cloves and salt for 5 minutes. Remove cloves. Add tapioca and bring to full rolling boil. Cool and chill, stirring 2 or 3 times. Serve in soup cups garnished with slice of orange, a maraschino cherry and a sprig of mint.

Chilled Apple Soup

(Serves 6-7)

Three cups diced tart red apple, 2-inch sticks cinnamon, 8 whole cloves, skins and all, 2 cups water, 2 cups, pinch of salt, 2/3 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 1 1/2 teaspoons grated lemon rind, 2 teaspoons quick-cooking tapioca.

Mix all ingredients except tapioca. Simmer 15 minutes. Mash apples with spoon or potato masher after 10 minutes. Press through sieve. Add tapioca and bring to full rolling boil. Cool and chill. Serve garnished with a sprinkle of nutmeg.

Chilled Grape Soup

RANDOM thoughts about your favorite ball club:

- Wasn't it just a few months ago we were worrying for fear Al Rosen wouldn't hit?
- Now we're afraid he won't hit 50 home runs instead of a miserable 45 or so.
- We've scoured the community, but apparently all those birds who said "Easter is a bum" have left town for their summer vacations. Can't find any.
- If you figure he's a bum, imagine where Detroit would be today with Lucius Luke playing first base for Red Rolfe.
- Boudreau, the erstwhile boy manager, took a lot of abuse Sunday for his failure to pull Bob Lemon when he was being squeezed.

North Is Loaded

By FRITZ HOWELL

LOOKS as if the North will have the edge, in both talent and tonnage, in the fifth annual Ohio High School North-South All-Star grid game in Toledo Aug. 18.

A quick check through the rosters of the all-senior squad disclosed today that the up-staters will have seven first team choices, four second stringers and three third team members from last fall's Associated Press All-Ohio.

The South will have only one of the first team selections on hand, along with three from the second and three from the third.

In the weight department the northmen have five linemen and two fullbacks who soar over the 200-pound mark, while the boys in gray will have only two.

Greatest Southern losses were two of unbeaten Cincinnati Purcell's great backs, Roger Franz and Jim Bolger. Bolger made the first All-Ohio team and Franz the second, but both declined invitations to participate in the big fray to be held in conjunction with the week-long coaching school at Waite High School. Ken Ebersbach of Zanesville also shunned the game.

Latest additions to the coaching school faculty are Fritz Crisler of Michigan and Jack Mollenkopf of Purdue, the latter to out-

- One bright lad said Sunday he didn't see why Cleveland could not trade Bob Kennedy for Vic Wertz.
- They can, chum, but authorities aren't sure how they'd move the Terminal Tower to Detroit to complete the payment.
- We don't know how Bob Avila fared Monday at this writing, but his performance in Sunday's nightcap should have had a bearing on Joe Gordon's future.
- It's likely the Flash will be collecting splinters for a while.
- We understand the Tribe is offering season passes, orchids and a good sized share of stock to anyone providing a sure-fire method of getting George Kell out.

line individual defensive play in four to seven-man lines. Others on the teaching staff are Wes Fesler of Ohio State, Jim Aiken of Oregon, Bob Snyder of Toledo, Les Casanova of Pittsburgh, and Rolfe Bevan, the West Point trainer. Frank Pauly, who resigned recently as Waite's athletic director and grid coach, is director of the All-Star program.

Co-Coaches Augie Morningstar of Mansfield and Herman (Bup) Reack of Canton have three more players to pick, but here's how their Northern squad stacks up at present:

Ends—Pete Popovich of Youngstown South, Larry Shells of Alliance, and Hosea Sims of Fremont; tackles—Tony Anton of Akron East, Darrell Courtney of Findlay, Everett Fry of Wooster; guards—Carl Hall of Sandusky, Richard Herbruck of Akron Garfield, Frank Hoffman of Van Wert, George Jacoby of Toledo Libbey, Dick Shine of Massillon, Lloyd Williams of Marion Harding; centers—Merle Daum of Marion Harding, Dick Trua of East Liverpool.

Quarterbacks—Max Pirner of Toledo Devilbiss, Frank Roppolo of Akron South; halfbacks—Bill Burney of Youngstown Rayen, Richard Hill of Findlay, Ronald Mauerer of Lakewood; fullbacks—Asa Jenkins, Mansfield; Tom McHugh, Toledo Central Catholic; Doug Thompson, Toledo Waite.

Picks Red Sox

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

One of the penalties for being a sports writer is that you're not supposed to let personalities affect your calculations. . . . Here comes the Fourth of July when all good "experts" are expected to survey the status of pennant races and pre-season predictions. . . . We'd like to be rooting for the Tigers and Phillies (because there's no nicer guy in baseball than Red Rolfe and we like the way the whole Phil crew operates). . . . But what are you going to do about a few other personal favorites like Steve O'Neill, Eddie Dyer and Billy Southworth. . . . Rolfe still doesn't have the bench strength at Detroit and the Red Soxers, who figured to be the best team, have been playing like it since O'Neill took over. . . . With Brooklyn's pitching faltering, almost anybody could win that. National League pennant, but the Phils seem to have trouble taking the tough games. . . . So we'll let our original selections—Boston and Brooklyn—stand until further notice.

You've heard ball players described as "automatic outs" and now, by gosh, Onslow, Iowa, High school comes up with a real one. . . . Only eight of the 13 boys in the school are available for permission to use a girl in center field was denied by the state association. . . . So Onslow played with only two outfielders and when eight players have taken their turns at bat, an automatic out is chalked up. . . . That really hurt in one game when there were two out and the bases full when Mr. Automatic's turn came up. . . . It's safe to say that the invisible ninth player is about as popular in Onslow as Onslow was in Chicago.

Tribe Leaves 11 Runners On Base

Gromek Loser Despite Rosen's 25th Homer

THE St. Louis Browns temporarily detoured a mid-season pennant rush by the Cleveland Indians Monday, defeating them 4 to 2 in spite of a couple of late inning scares.

With Clarence Marshall on the mound for St. Louis, Cleveland had the bases filled with nobody out in the eighth. The best the Indians could do with that setup was to score one run.

Again in the ninth, with two out, Allie Clark and Luke Easter got to third and first on successive singles, but Larry Doby fled to left field and the 11,656 fans went home.

The Browns scored first in the third inning, then added two more in the fourth when Dick Kokos slammed a home run over the right field fence to score Sherman Lollar ahead of him. Pinch hitter Roy Sievers knocked in the other run in the seventh.

Cleveland's rookie third baseman, Al Rosen, socked a home run, too, his 25th, in the fourth inning. He swatted it over the left field fence off Dick Starr and it gave him the home run leadership in the American League, one ahead of Boston's Ted Williams.

Starr, who was credited with the victory, had to leave the game at the end of the sixth inning because of an upset stomach. Steve Gromek was the loser.

THE DETROIT Tigers blasted two triples, a double, and a home run among 14 hits and defeated the Chicago White Sox, 8-4, before 12,710 today.

The victory stretched their American League lead to four and a half games.

Freddy Hutchinson gained his ninth victory, although Paul Calvert and Dizzy Trout finished up. Vic Wertz, shoved Detroit into an early lead in the first inning when he drove his No. 13 home run into the right field second deck after Johnny Lipton walked.

Joe DiMaggio, one of the great outfielders of all time, played first base for the New York Yankees. The fading world champs dropped a 7-2 decision to Washington's Senators.

The greying Yankee Clipper, who will be 36 November 25, flawlessly handled 13 putouts. He failed to get a hit in four at bats, however, and his batting average slipped to .258.

Manager Casey Stengel made other revisions, moving Catcher Yogi Berra to third in the batting order and dropping outfielder Hank Bauer to fifth. The Yanks nevertheless performed rather listlessly in losing their fifth game of the season to the pesky Nats.

The Senators smacked three New York hurriers for 10 hits, with Eddie Stewart contributing a double and home run.

The Boston Braves beat the Philadelphia Phillies 3 to 1 today to make the National League's first division a very congested place just one day short of the traditional midway point in the season.

THE BRAVES' victory knocked the Phils out of first place, temporarily at least, pending the St. Louis Cardinals' night game with the Chicago Cubs. And the Braves edged to within a game and a half of the Cardinals. The Phils are in second, a half game behind St. Louis. And the Brooklyn Dodgers are a whisker behind the Braves.

Vern Bickford tamed the red

RUBBER MAN—Roy Smalley does some fancy stretching and undercover work, tagging Outfielder Bill Howerton of the Cardinals out at second base in Wrigley Field. The Cubs' shortstop took the throw from Catcher Mickey Owen who fielded an attempted sacrifice bunt by Johnny Bucha, St. Louis catcher.

hot Phils for the second time this season, limiting the Philadelphia Phillies to five safeties, all singles. The Braves got to Ken Heintzelman and his successor, Milo Candini, for only five hits but three of those were for extra bases, a homer by Bob Elliott and a pair of doubles by Tommy Holmes.

Alvin Dark hit a 280-foot home run in the 11th inning today to give the New York Giants a 3-2 victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers.

The blow, which struck the left field foul screen, broke up a tight hurling duel between Brooklyn's Preacher Roe and Larry Jansen of New York. It also dealt the slumping Dodgers their fifth straight defeat.

The Cincinnati Reds who have had a long term lease on last place in the National League, finally dug themselves out of the coal hole today by beating the Pittsburgh Pirates, 8 to 5, despite two home runs by Ralph Kiner.

The Cincinnati triumph dropped the Pirates into the last spot. Kiner blasted home runs on each of his first two trips to the plate to run his season's total to 21—and Crosley Field long has been his home run jinx.

At the finish, however, it was Kiner who failed. The Pirates had two on and one out in the ninth when Kiner came to bat but reliever Ewell Blackwell struck him out and then did the same thing to Gus Bell.

Salem Legion Gains Finals In County

Winning games over North Georgetown Saturday and over Columbiana Sunday on the Lake Placid diamond, the Salem Junior Legion team advanced to the finals in the county baseball tournament.

They'll reign as favorites over East Liverpool, since the Potter team has lost one game and must defeat Salem two straight games to win the title. Salem needs to win only one game.

Saturday, Chet Brautigam's crew won a 7-0 tilt from Georgetown, as Bobby Theiss tossed a one hitter. He fanned 13 and walked only one man. The team played errorless ball behind him. A four run first inning was highlighted by Johnny Votaw's double with the bases loaded.

Salem staggered through to a 4-3 win over Columbiana Sunday, although Bob Coy pitched a two hit game. Bad throws in the infield almost cost Salem the tilt. Eleven Salem batters struck out and Coy fanned nine from Columbiana.

The Salem team plays Beaver Falls in the Tri-State tournament at 2:30 today, at East Palestine.

Government Deficit Over 3 Billion

WASHINGTON, July 3—(AP)—The government finished fiscal 1950 on June 30 with a deficit of $3,122,102,357.45. The Treasury reported today.

That was about $2,300,000,000 or 40 per cent less red ink than anticipated in an administration estimate made only last April 20.

The government went in the hole for the year—for the 18th time in the last 20 years—by spending $40,166,835,914.82 while taking in only $37,044,733,557.37.

The federal debt stood at $257,376,855,385.01 at the year's end last Friday. The Treasury had $5,517,087,691.65 in cash on hand at the time.

Despite the bright showing against administration estimates, the deficit was about $1,311,000,000 greater than that recorded for the previous year.

Auto Hit By 2 Trains, Driver Escapes Death

ALLIANCE, July 3—Lady Luck played an important role in an accident Sunday night when a car driven by Lawrence Lacivita, 31, of Alliance was struck by two trains at the Daskel st. extension, crossing of the Pennsylvania railroad.

Mr. Lacivita crawled out of his demolished 1941 sedan suffering no worse consequences than shock and head and arm cuts. He was taken to Alliance City hospital.

Police reported that Lacivita drove onto the crossing and into the side of a 14-passenger train. The impact threw the auto around and into the path of an oncoming freight train.

Senate Fight Seen In Oklahoma Primary

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 3—(AP)—A slam-bang primary battle for a U. S. senate seat will be put up to Oklahoma Democrats tomorrow in the nation's only Independence Day election.

Indochina Newspaper Editor Assassinated

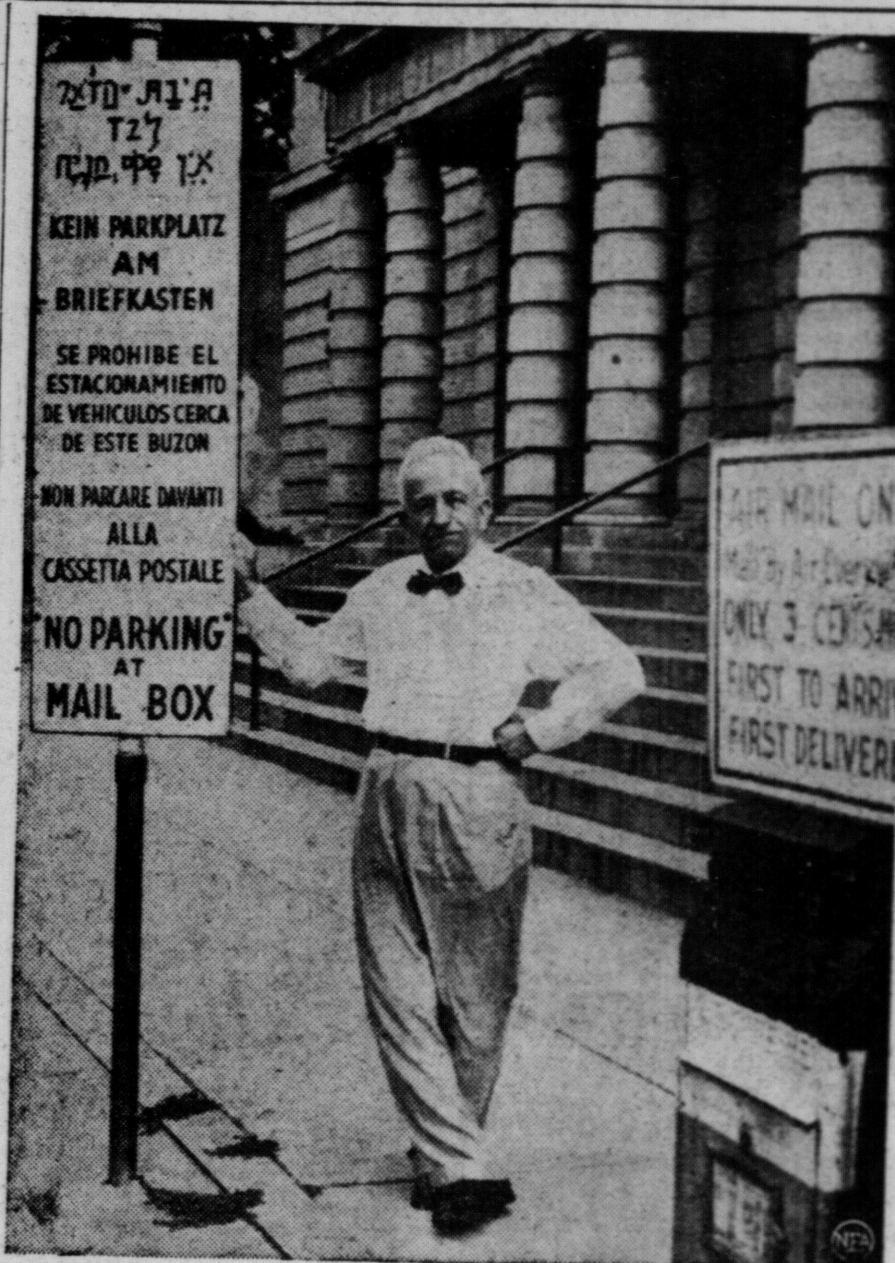

SAIGON, Indochina, July 3—A prominent newspaper publisher was assassinated today in what may be a Communist wave of terrorism growing out of Korean affairs.

Lu Khe, publisher of the important Indochina newspaper, Anh Sang, was killed by pistol fire as he left his home. Two men who fired the shots escaped, hurling hand grenades to cover their flight.

French informants said they believe Moscow has ordered all its followers in Asia, including those in Indochina, to increase their terrorist activities in a show of solidarity with the North Korean Communist army.

Switchmen Refuse To Call Off Strike

CHICAGO, July 3—(AP)—The Switchmen's Union of North America has refused a government plea to call off its strike against five western and midwestern railroads.

Apple, Peach Outlook Poor

50 Percent Of Both Fruits Expected

ABOUT half a crop of both apples and peaches is expected in this district this year, W. H. Matthews, retired orchardist, said today.

He said that some fruit growers will have a full crop, while others may not fare too well. The May 8 frost apparently caused little damage to fruit in general, he said.

Rome and Stayman, principal apple varieties in use in this area, are promising, but Jonathans are anticipated to be poor and Baldwins, which may be good one year and bad the next, are having an off season, Mr. Matthews said.

He also advised DDT be used to control the invasion of red mite which has struck the apple crop in this area. He said the insect sucks the juice out of the leaves, causing it to affect the development of the apple.
